

M.Sc. Speech Language Pathology - Dissertation

2022-2023
Sl.No	Title	Student	Guide / Co-guide
1.	Attitudes of outgoing speech language pathology students about providing communication services to the transgender.	Ms. T. Janane	Dr. Subbarao
2.	Acquisition of case markers in typically developing Tamil-speaking children.	Ms. D. Sunitha Rosy	Mr. Ramana Kumar
3.	Semantic intention and semantic relation in typically developing Tamil speaking children.	Ms. V. A. Vishupriya	Mr. Ramana Kumar
4.	Sensitivity and Specificity of Cepstral Peak Prominence (CPP) in identifying vocal nodules.	Ms. Tania Solanki	Dr. G. Amoolya
5.	Efficacy of Neuromuscular Electrical Stimulation for treatment of Dysphagia in GuillainBarre Syndrome.	Ms. Diviya Rana	Dr. G. Amoolya
6.	Survey among speech language pathologists on current assessment and treatment practice for bilingual speakers with aphasia.	Mrs. Shincy Zera Shaji	Ms. Roshini Lenin kumar
7.	Verbal fluency and cognitive control in Tamil-English speaking young and older bilinguals.	Ms. I. S. Fenisha	Ms. Roshini Lenin kumar
8.	Aerodynamic analysis in gym and athlete users	Ms. Sindhuja Senthilkumar	Mrs. Radhika Mohan
9.	Effectiveness of structured teaching programme on improving knowledge about developmental language disorder among teacher trainees.	Ms. J. S. Priyadharini	Mrs. Radhika Mohan
10.	Parental outlook on shared reading practice	Ms. Anju Mariam Jacob	Mrs. Radhika Mohan
11.	Acoustical analysis of voice in wind instrumentalists before and after practice session.	Ms. A. Nithya Sree	Mrs. Radhika Mohan
12.	Developmental trends in written language in typically developing Hindi-English Bilingual children.	Ms. Nitika Bahuguma	Dr. G. Amoolya